Order Instituting Rulemaking Regarding Policies,
Procedures and Rules for the Low Income Energy Efficiency Programs of California's Energy Utilities.

Rulemaking 07-01-042

Southern California Edison Company's (U 338-E)
Application for Approval of SCE's "Change a Light, Change the World," Compact Fluorescent Lamp Program.

Application 07-05-010

The Joint Reply Comments of the Association of California Community and Energy Services and A W.I.S.H on the Proposed Decision of Commissioner Dian Grueneich and Administrative Law Judge
(ALJ) Kim Malcolm Providing Direction for Low Income Energy Efficiency Policy
Objectives, Program Goals, Strategic Planning, and the 2009 – 2011 Program Portfolio and Addressing Renter Access and Assembly Bill 2140 Implementation.

In accordance with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, the Association of California Community and Energy Services (ACCES) and A World Institute for a Sustainable Humanity (A W.I.S.H.) submit these Reply Comments.

The "10 Year Rule"

The Proposed Decision directs that the 10 Year Rule be eliminated. In their comments the Joint Utilities (San Diego Gas and Electric and Southern California Gas Company) ask that the Proposed Decision (PD) rescind this directive and instead modify certain sections of the current LIEE Policy and Procedures Manual pertaining to the 10 Year Rule.¹ As we stated in our Opening Comments, we agree with the elimination of the 10 Year Rule and note that clarification on the implementation of this directive would be helpful. But the changes requested by the Joint Utilities would have the practical effect of maintaining the current 10 Year Rule. Their stated reasons for modification of the PD on this issue have not been considered in this proceeding, are based on unexamined, untested assertions and should be rejected.

Leveraging

ACCES and A W.I.S.H. note Southwest Gas' description of its experience leveraging its LIEE program funds. In comments filed December 10, Southwest Gas that: "Southwest's experience with its CBOs has been very positive, largely due to the CBOs ability to leverage their Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) funds with Southwest's LIEE program funds. Leveraging these funds affords Southwest's customers the ability to acquire the maximum amount of energy efficient measures in their homes, reducing missed opportunities and eliminating the possibilities of multiple outreach efforts."² Southwest went on to say in that same paragraph that the addition of private contractors, if necessary, "will require increased program administration for Southwest, which will result in an increase to the overall cost of the program." Intervenor believe that Southwest's actual experience with leveraging, including lowered costs and a reduction in missed opportunities and duplication, should inform the Commission's decision to pursue leveraging aggressively.

Workshops

In its comments, Pacific Gas & Electric ("PG&E") suggests consolidating the upcoming workshops to promote efficiency and cost-effectiveness.³ While efficiency and cost-effectiveness are strongly in the interest of small intervenors, and we do not object necessarily to a three to four day forum, ACCES and A W.I.S.H. are extremely concerned about a truncated process which does not allow sufficient time to consider adequately all the complicated issues to be addressed. Workshops in early January without the opportunity for all parties to study, evaluate and test utility models and assumptions on measures and cost tests would be a denial of due process and not in the interest of developing the most effective LIEE program. We believe evidentiary hearings would work best in creating a solid record for a Commission decision on this complicated

² "Comments of Southwest Gas Corporation on the Proposed Decision of Commissioner Dian Grueneich and Administrative Law Judge Kim Malcolm" at p. 2.

³ "Comments of Pacific Gas and Electric Company on Proposed Decision of Commissioner Grueneich and ALJ Malcolm on Decision Providing Direction for Low Income Energy Efficiency Policy Objectives, Program Goals, Strategic Planning and the 2009-2011 Objectives, Program Goals, Strategic Planning and the 2009-2011 Program Portfolio" at pp. 6-7.

issue. But if the Commission grants PG&E's request, we ask that follow-up workshops be scheduled later in January or February to permit parties and their experts to examine, test and respond to utilities' preliminary models, cost-tests, and assumptions. We believe, however onerous that it may be for all involved, the issues before the Commission are too important and complicated for resolution in several workshops; nor does PG&E explain how workshops in early January would afford all parties access to utility models and assumptions prior to the first workshops.⁴

Budget Comparison Table

Concerning the Joint Utilities comments on the Budget Comparison Table on page 10 of the PD, we agree that % of budget spent should be based on the authorized budget and carryover funds.

Respectfully submitted,

⁴ In its comments at p.4, Southern California Edison seeks clarification on several key issues, including the meaning of "program elements", how utilities are to determine cost-effectiveness of each program measure, and whether a uniform methodology should be developed for assessing cost-effectiveness or whether separate methodologies should be used. Various other commenters have voiced the need for clarification on numerous other complex issues.
